<sup>1</sup> Footnote 1 of the Complaint recounts the procedural history of this case and announces Plaintiff's intention to appeal the claims dismissed by the Court's December 14, 2005 Order, including but not limited to the claims against Defendants John Pollock and Julie Barker that Plaintiff characterizes as fully resolved by the Court's Order. Accordingly, it is neither necessary nor appropriate for Defendants to "answer" footnote 1. Nevertheless, footnote 1 also states that Plaintiff "incorporates by reference all claims and causes of action plead in his Original Complaint." To the extent Plaintiff actually intends to allege claims and causes of action dismissed by Court Order, or otherwise plead through incorporation by reference of a prior pleading, Defendants deny those allegations.

4. Defendants deny the averments contained in sentence 3 of Paragraph 4 and admit the remaining averments in Paragraph 4.

5. Defendants deny the averments contained in sentence 2 of Paragraph 5 and admit the averments in sentences 1, 3 and 5. Sentence 4 contains no averments but notes Plaintiff's attempt to preserve the dismissal of claims against John Pollock for appeal. Defendants deny that this Court has personal jurisdiction over Pollock or that Plaintiff may bring any claims against Pollock in good faith. Defendants further deny any allegations against Pollock that Plaintiff purports to incorporate by reference.

6. Defendants deny the averments contained in sentence 2 of Paragraph 6 and admit the averments in sentences 1, 3 and 5. Defendants further deny any allegations against Barker that Plaintiff purports to incorporate by reference.

II. AFFIRMATIVE AND SPECIAL DEFENSES

82. Plaintiff did not incur any damage or harm due to any purported acts or omissions of Defendants.

83. In the alternative, any damage or harm allegedly incurred by Plaintiff is attributable to causes other than any purported acts or omissions of Defendants.

84. In the alternative, the acts or omissions of Plaintiff, Plaintiff's agents, representatives, employees and/or other persons acting on behalf of Plaintiff were the proximate cause and the superseding, intervening, and/or independent cause of any alleged injury or damage sustained by Plaintiff.

85. Plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because the loss or damages, if any, were caused by the contributory, comparative or proportionate negligence or fault of Plaintiff and/or the comparative or proportionate fault of other persons or defendants. To that end, Defendants invoke on their behalf to the fullest extent allowed by law all applicable doctrines of proportionate responsibility, comparative responsibility, comparative negligence or contributory negligence. Defendants plead such doctrines as defenses, as bars to Plaintiff's claims, and as requests for defensive relief by way of credits or offsets or bars to any recovery sought by or awarded to Plaintiff.

86. Daniel Roehrs, Ardella Simacek, Tom Hazelton, Mike Flower, Kieran McGrath and Rick Hobbs, as members of the so-called Minority Group, and FSI are partially or wholly responsible for any loss or damages sought by Plaintiff as responsible third parties under TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 33.001, et seq.

87. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of estoppel, laches and/or waiver.

89. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of collateral estoppel and/or res judicata.

90. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to Plaintiff's lack of standing to prosecute those claims.

91. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Plaintiff's failure to mitigate damages.

92. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the judicial communications privilege or immunity.

93. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants' actions were legally justified and/or privileged.

94. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

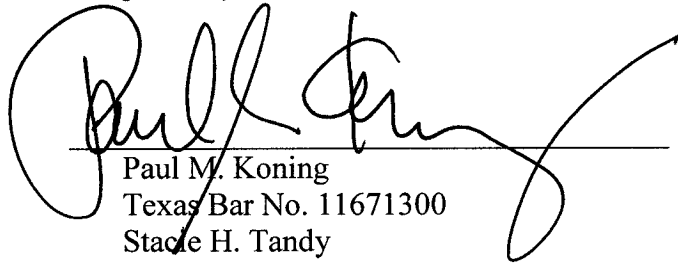

95. Defendants affirmatively plead that the legal standard used in Texas to determine whether exemplary damages should be awarded, and the method used to determine the amount of exemplary damages, are unconstitutional for the following reasons:

a) The legal standard used to determine whether exemplary damages may be awarded is so vague, arbitrary and indefinite that it constitutes both a denial of Defendants' right to equal protection of the laws and a denial of its due process rights in violation of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article I, §§ 3 and 19, of the Texas Constitution.

b) The method by which the amount of exemplary damages is determined subjects Defendants to excessive fines in violation of the 8th and 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article I, § 13, of the Texas Constitution.

WHEREFORE, Defendants Conesys, Inc., Ronald E. Spire and J-Tech, Inc. pray that Plaintiff take nothing by these causes of action, that Defendants recover their costs of court, including attorneys' fees, and for all other relief as to which they may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
